The New Millinery

The last ten days have been a severe test for our Millinery Organization, but we are happy to say:

We are ready with a splendid assemblage of New Trimmed Dress, Street and Carriage Hats, the production of our workrooms for the last four days, and new special pattern hats from our New York representative Milliners, for our patrons who did not care to buy before Easter.

Our Trimmed Dress and Street Hats, $8.50, $10.00, $12.50 to $25.00. Are, if possible, handsomer than ever, and possess the style and character seldom, if ever, found in hats anywhere near these prices.

Trimmed Tailored Suit Hats.

With a style and dash which belong exclusively to this Millinery Organization.

$5.00, $7.50 $10 to $12.50

Untrimmed Hat Sections.

No person will dispute us when we say we sell more untrimmed hats than any retail house in this city. The reason is plain; we spend a lot of time and money in getting the correct shapes from France, copying them and giving to our patrons exclusive shapes at the smallest possible prices. Untrimmed Hats of Tazal, Milan, Chip, Real Hair, Java, Imported Leghorns, Neapolitans, Jap Braid Hats, etc.

$1.00, $1.50 $5.00 to $12.50 Each

KANSAS A STATE WITH LOOSE LID

Salt Lake Newspaper Man
Talks About Observations in "Prohibition" State.

HAVE DIFFERENT STANDARD

PEOPLE MEASURE "PROSPERITY" BY WHAT THEY SAVE.

George L. Geiger, who used to be in the newspaper business in Salt Lake, but who is now swiftly acquiring name and fame in the advertising line, returned to the city yesterday. He has been in Kansas. Mr. Geiger has a word or two to say about conditions in that state.

"Kansas is a rich state, but it lacks the ginger which is so noticeable among western states. For instance, Leavenworth, where I have been for the last three months, is a wealthy city of 25,000 people, with over $1,000,000 on deposit in its five banking institutions. This represents the savings of farmers of Leavenworth county, one of the richest in Kansas. But Leavenworth, like other cities of the Sunflower state, does not grow. The cities there seem to content themselves with 'leaving well enough alone.' Out west and especially in Utah the cities want to grow. They are not satisfied with anything less than a perceptible growth each month. Back in Kansas and the other middle western states the wealth of each state's people is represented by the deposits in banks. Out here it has always seemed to me that the wealth was represented by the money being spent for improvements in cities, in buildings and investments.

"When I left here I was filled with 'arguments' advanced by friends in the ministry that prohibition does prohibit, and that when I got to Kansas I would learn this. The truth of the matter is that I learned just the opposite. When I left Salt Lake I made an agreement with a well known minister here. I told him I would wire when I found a liquor dispensing emporium, commonly and vulgarly known as 'saloon,' or by the synonyms 'joint,' or 'dive.' I arrived in Leavenworth at 7:25 p. m. on Jan. 27, and at 7:40 the same evening I wired the Salt Lake minister as follows:

"Have had a look. Took me eight minutes to walk from the depot to the National hotel, and two minutes to tuck away three. Ha, ha."

Legislature Passes More Laws.

"The last legislature passed more laws to clamp the lid on still more tightly, and whether this will make any change or not I can't say. But so far prohibition in Kansas has been a joke. There is no difficulty expended in paying for liquor one wants. They serve draught beer in 'clubs,' where twenty men pay 25 cents initiation fee, the $100 buying a bar and piping and the first keg. One dollar a month membership fee pays a bartender and provides additional kegs as needed, and entitles the 'club' members to a key and the privilege of buying draught beer at the universally recognized price of 5 cents per schooner.

To Eliminate Clubs.

"With the new law the prohibs expect to shut all drugists down and eliminate 'clubs.' But I am dubious, because they have had laws to burn back there for years. More laws, it seems to me, will only add confusion to the confusion which exists. The constitution of Kansas makes it a dry state, or should have that effect. If it has failed miserably.

An Inexhaustible Source.

"Here is an example of how prohibition does not prohibit: People in Leavenworth, situated on the Missouri call up 'Skinner,' Stillings, Missouri, just across the river, and order whatever variety of liquor and any amount they desire, in two hours' time the case of beer or bottle of firewater is delivered at the door. It has been rushed across the bridge in quick order and comes to you at the same price as it retails in Missouri. It is against the 'law,' of course, to bring liquor into Kansas, but the toll-taker on the bridge is a man who does not emulate the custom collectors by any means. I have seen soldiers go back into Kansas from Kansas City, Mo., with their pockets bulging in such a manner as to make a search unnecessary, but nothing is said. Quarts upon quarts of liquor are carried into Kansas in this manner by patrons of the Kansas City-Leavenworth trolley system every day—and will be, no matter how many laws are passed.

COWARDLY MURDER.

Wealthy Indian Land Owner Victim of Unknown Assassin.

Claremore, Okla., April 16.—John Bullette, a wealthy Indian land owner, widely known throughout Oklahoma, Texas and Old Mexico, was assassinated while sitting at his desk in his office here last night. The assassin escaped. Bullette was to have been married in the near future to Miss Pearl Eddleman, clerk in the government Indian agency at Muskogee.

No motive is known for the crime. The shots that killed Bullette were fired through a window.

CRASHED INTO TREE.

Fatal Auto Ride of a Party of Four

Young Men in New York.

New York, April 16.—An automobile ride of four young men ended in death for one of their number and a fatal injury to another, when a touring car in which they were driving at a terrific speed crashed into a tree in Central park today. Matthew Camp, an employee of the Moot Automobile company, who was acting as chauffeur, was crushed to death, and Joseph Fogarty was thrown on his head on a concrete walk adjoining the driveway and fatally injured. Ernest Freyer had his right leg fractured.

ONE KILLED; TWO INJURED.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 16.—Ralph M. Bate, aged 22, was electrocuted; Joseph Hafala was rendered unconscious and seriously injured, and M. A. Miller, a cousin of Bate, was slightly injured near Venice, a beach suburb, today in a peculiar manner while repairing the pump of a country well. The men were lifting an iron pipe from the well to repair it, when a section of the pipe came in contact with a heavily charged feed wire of the Edison Electric company, overhead, diverting the current, with fatal results.

OFF FOR THE ORIENT.

San Francisco, April 16.—Former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, accompanied by his wife and other members of a traveling party, sailed for the Orient today on the Japanese liner Chiyu Maru. He will make a stop at Honolulu, leaving there on May 17 for Yokohama, from which city he will proceed to Peking. It is the intention of Mr. Fairbanks to make a study of trade and industrial conditions in the far east.
